Public Media Works and Stan Winston Productions to Produce the Film 'Monsters'

Van Nuys, Calif. - Public Media Works, Inc. (OTCBB: PUBM), a film, music and television entertainment and digital media company announced today that the Company and Stan Winston Productions are to jointly produce the film "Monsters." "Monsters" is based on the original treatment written by Corbin Bernsen. "Monsters" is a Sci-Fi Thriller with epic implications, yet grounded in a humorous, romantic relationship between its two principal characters: a too young to be burnt out Ivy League professor, and a sassy English jetsetter. The Company and Stan Winston Productions entered into a joint development agreement to work together to seek financing, development and production of a film and/or television series based on the "Monsters" treatment. Stan Winston, and his Stan Winston Studio, is responsible for the creation of some of the most memorable special effects in film, including those seen in the "Terminator," "Predator," "Alien," and "Jurassic Park."

"We are absolutely thrilled to be working with Stan and Stan Winton Productions on 'Monsters,'" stated Corbin Bernsen, President of Public Film Works, a division of Public Media Works. "Stan and his studio bring a wealth of experience, talent and creativity to help Public Media Works bring this fantastic story to the screen," Bernsen added.

ABOUT PUBLIC MEDIA WORKS

Public Media Works is unique in the world of publicly traded companies operating in the diversified entertainment segment. Managed by a team of working filmmakers, entertainment industry professionals and seasoned technologists, the company brings together the golden age of film and the new age of the web by identifying untapped resources of talent and content and massaging those elements into professional entertainment products. The company seeks out raw content in the form of film concepts, trailers, scripts, treatments, music and book proposals which it then acquires or licenses for further development and distribution.
